CAKES FOR THE QUEEN OF HEAVEN

IN ANCIENT TIMES

The title for the curriculum comes from the book of Jeremiah in the Hebrew Bible wherein God speaks to Jeremiah, saying: "Do you not see what they do in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem? The children gather wood and the fathers kindle the fire, and the women knead the dough to make cakes to the Queen of Heaven and to pour out libations to the Goddess, in order to anger me!" (Jeremiah, 7:17-18)

REGISTRATION FORM

Cakes for The Queen of Heaven is a woman honoring adult religious education curriculum of feminist theology that examines pre-Judeo Christian cultures that worshiped the female as divine. The concepts of equality and reverence for the female in a religious setting are eye-opening to many participants. This workshop series examines important elements of today's women's lives; personal, interpersonal, and private.
