

December Events at First Religious Society Unitarian Universalist

Wednesday, December 7: Wizards and Sages

Join us from 12:30-2:30pm for worship in the sanctuary followed by conversation over lunch in the Lower Meetinghouse. The worship service is briefer and less formal than a Sunday service—providing a slightly different experience that includes music, quiet, and reflection.

Wednesday, December 7: Holiday Tea

Drop in for this annual FRS festivity with tea and light sweet and savory foods. Come and enjoy fellowship with FRS staff and fellow parishioners, 12:30-2:30, Lower Meetinghouse.

Friday, December 9: Historic Church Tours and Cookies for Peace

Enjoy the festivities offered by the City of Newburyport's First Fridays and stop by the church for a historic tour and purchase some holiday cookies. Funds raised will be shared between FRS and the Unitarian Universalist Service Committee work in Ukraine, 4:30-8pm, FRS.

Sunday, December 11: Justice Sunday!

Join us for fellowship followed by exploration in our congregational commitments to social justice. Soup and salad lunch at noon followed by programming exploring bipartisan advocacy to stop gun violence.

Saturday, December 17 and Sunday, December 18: Candlelight Service, 7pm, Sanctuary

The Candlelight Service is one of FRS's longest continuously running traditions. Enjoy singing performed by FRS Candlelight Choir.

Saturday, December 24: Christmas Eve Service, 5:30pm, Sanctuary
