

November Events at First Religious Society Unitarian Universalist

Wednesday, November 2: Wizards and Sages

Join us from 12:30-2:30pm for worship in the sanctuary followed by conversation over lunch in the Lower Meetinghouse. The worship service is briefer and less formal than a Sunday service—providing a slightly different experience that includes music, quiet, and reflection. Bring a bagged lunch to enjoy in fellowship with Reverend Rebecca, church staff, and other parishioners and friends. All are welcome!

Saturday, November 5: An Afternoon with Pulitzer Prize-winning Author Megan Marshall at 2pm in the Sanctuary.

Sunday, November 6: New Member Sunday with Danny Harrington on saxophone. Everyone is welcome!

Sunday, November 13: Justice Sunday!

Join us for fellowship followed by exploration in our congregational commitments to social justice. Soup and salad lunch at noon followed by programming exploring the issue of Afghan resettlement initiatives. We will learn what is going on in the state and in our city, as well as answer your questions in preparation for our congregational vote on Dec. 4th.

Saturday, November 12: Guided Tour of Sleepy Hollow Cemetery, Concord, MA at 2:30pm.

This will be an fun, fascinating and entertaining afternoon with our personable tour guide, Rev. Gibbons, who invites us to share a libation at the nearby Colonial Inn after the one-hour tour. Carpooling from Newburyport can be arranged. Register by Nov 10:

<https://bit.ly/FRSSleepyHollowTour>

Questions? julie.amery@frsuu.org

November 18: Friday Night Fellowship and Potluck

6:00-8:00pm in the Lower Meeting House. The program for November will be hymn sing with FRS Director of Church Music Justin Murphy-Mancini.

Upcoming events:

Sunday, December 4: Special Congregational Meeting at 11:45pm

Friday, December 9: Cookies for Peace and Church Tours

Friday, December 18 & Saturday, December 19: Candlelight