

November Events at First Religious Society Unitarian Universalist

Thursday, Nov 2: Special Congregational Service of Remembrance at 5:30pm. This reflective service will include poetry, music, and silence, inviting contemplation and comfort.

Tuesday, Nov 7: UU Study Group with Rev. Rebecca from 6-7:30pm in the Sanctuary
New this church year, on the 1st Tuesday of every month Rev. Rebecca will host a discussion group focusing on UU Theology, Values, and Belief. In November we will discuss the meaning and history behind the various elements of our worship services, come with your questions and suggestions about worship.

Wednesday, Nov 8: Wednesday Night Fellowship

Join us for a potluck dinner followed by a brief worship/ritual and program. Great for all ages! Please contact Julie Parker-Amery at julie.amery@frsuu.org for more details or just come!

Sunday, November 12: Justice Sunday, Soup Sunday!

Following worship service everyone is invited to the Lower Meetinghouse for a soup & salad lunch followed by a brief program which will feature a presentation on the FRS' Pine Ridge Youth Trip.

Friday, Nov 17: FRS' Fall Auction "Grateful Gathering" with dinner and beverages, doors open at 6pm, Newburyport Community Center, 331 High Street. To purchase tickets, please contact vellis@ellisdesign.net or stop by the auction table after Sunday worship service.

Friday, Nov 29: Native Plants for Every Yard...and Why it is Vital to Plant Them from 6-9pm in the Lower Meetinghouse

Please join us for a vegetarian or vegan inspired potluck and social time from 6-7 pm, followed by a presentation from guest presenter Carol Decker, who is steeped in this topic and is an engaging and informative presenter. Carol was previously the Director of the Ipswich River Wildlife Sanctuary and is an extraordinary naturalist and leader of Audubon bird walks.

To view the full offerings of activities taking place, please visit www.frsuu.org.